

Phebeit C. Ingram

President/CEO/Senior Event Designer

Phebeit Ingram is the President, CEO and Senior Event Designer at Eleven 11 Events, Inc., which includes The Venue by Eleven 11, Lansing, Michigan's premier upscale event space.

With over 20 years of experience in event design and decor, coordination and management, interior decorating and arts, she has an eye for design, a passion for excellence and a spirit of service for all those she encounters.

A successful business owner and visionary entrepreneur, she loves taking old ideas and transforming them into something new and fabulous that changes the business and events industry forever.

Following a decorated 35-year career with the United Parcel Service, she embarked on a journey to leave behind a business legacy for her family. Eleven 11 Events, LLC launched in 2018 and has grown from a local wedding and event design firm to an incorporated regional powerhouse with expertise in luxury draping, upscale designs, and a 20,000 square foot venue with three distinct spaces and in-house catering.

Born in Syracuse, NY and raised in Lansing, MI, Phebeit attended Lansing Eastern High School and Lansing Community College. She currently resides in her hometown with her husband Michael with whom she has three grown children, Layne, Justin, and Jocelyn.

